CAMBRIDGE SOUTHERN FINANCIAL ADVISORS OPENS 2 NEW OFFICES

Fee-Only Financial Planning Firm Adds Space to Meet Demands of Growing Client Base – New Offices in Atlanta and Salt Lake City

Cambridge Southern Financial Advisors is pleased to announce the opening of a new office in Atlanta. The “Atlanta-Northside” office, located in the South Terraces building near Perimeter Mall, replaces the firm’s “Northside” office at 5555 Glenridge Connector. The new office address is 115 Perimeter Center Place, NE, Suite 1060, Atlanta, GA 30346. Driving directions, maps, and phone/fax numbers for all office locations are available at www.CambridgeSouthern.com under “Contact Us.”

The firm continues to grow at a steady pace thanks in large part to referrals from existing clients. The larger office will help meet this growing demand and provide greater scheduling flexibility for all of the firm’s financial advisors. The new Atlanta-Northside office boasts three conference rooms, five offices, and a private reception area.

Cambridge Southern continues to grow both in Georgia and outside its home state, currently serving clients in 15 states. With cutting edge technology, such as virtual web meetings, e-mail, and teleconferences, the firm can effectively work with clients across the country.

In August, the firm opened an office in Sandy, Utah, a suburb of Salt Lake City. Headed by Neil Mahoney, the Salt Lake office will serve as a hub of activity for a growing clientele in Utah and other Western States.

Phone systems and computers for the firm’s three offices are networked seamlessly to allow financial advisors and staff from all offices the ability to collaborate and serve clients, wherever they may live, via a unified, team approach.
